

Università degli Studi di Siena

Cattedra Medicina Legale

Prof. Cosimo Loré

L'Istituto Europeo di Scienze Forensi e Medicina Legale (European Legal Medicine Agency - ELMA), il cui Statuto è stato firmato a Chambéry nel febbraio del 2001, si è posto come obiettivi la ricerca scientifica, la formazione e l'integrazione europea fra poli di eccellenza, interfacciandosi con le istituzioni e le migliori professionalità del settore e divenendo la maggiore migliore realtà scientifica europea di medicina legale.

www.forensicpathology.net

PRESIDENZA ONORARIA

Piero Fucci, Professore Emerito di Medicina Legale, Università di Roma Tor Vergata

Oldrich Fryc, Professeur de Médecine Légale, Université de Genève

Presidenza dal 2001

Frédéric Bonbled, Belgian Department Director and Ordinary Member

John Clark, British Department Director and Ordinary Member

François Crespo, Founder Member

Romano La Harpe, Swiss Department Director and Founder Member

Cosimo Loré, Siena University Director Scienzemedicolegali

Daniel Malicier, French Department Director Ordinary Member

Enrico Manfredi d'Angrognà Luserna von Staufen, Italian Department Director

Vincenza Palermo, Siena University Scienzemedicolegali

ORGANISMI PUBBLICI MEMBRI DELL'ELMA

UNIVERSITÀ DI SIENA (ITALIA)

UNIVERSITÀ CLAUDE BERNARD LYON (Francia)

UNIVERSITÀ DI GINEVRA (CH)

UNIVERSITÀ DI GLASGOW (GB)

UNIVERSITÀ CATTOLICA DE LOUVAIN (Belgio)

AIMS AND SCOPE

The INSTITUTE shall follow the research, education, and the integration of the medico legal matters between the EU Countries. The whole INSTITUTE activities shall be integrated on the continue co-operation between the member states represented in the inside by the "local or National Departments" (see further). The INSTITUTE activity shall be depending strictly by the commissions dispositions (Justice Commission, Health Commission, Research Commission) and all its acting shall be dedicated to follow the full integration and co-operation, that shall be full time between the member states and neighbor states (Swiss). In accordance with the Union laws the INSTITUTE goals shall be the creation (training, education) of health professionalist, and technical roles professionalist for the legal medicine and forensic sciences world. The INSTITUTE's activities shall be:

A - The study of the national juridical systems trying to create the doctrinal presuppositions necessarily to a full integration between the UE members in regarding the legal medicine in the criminal right, civil right, insurances harm evaluations, forensic psychiatry, victimology, criminology, social medicine, bio-ethics and all the forensic sciences fields where there is request interaction/integration between the member states systems;

B - The organization of refreshers courses for health professional men and women and justice operators about medico-legal and forensic sciences arguments;

C - The promotion of initiatives regarding the full and stable integration and the continuative cooperation between the Union members;

D - The creation of a scientific research plans where to involve junior graduated researchers under the aegis of the EU;

E - The consulting agency for European and national entities about Forensic sciences arguments counting on its international role and members competence;

F - The promotion of scientific publications with Magazines and Journals belonging to the INSTITUTE;

G - the extension of a national seat into each nation of the union to obtain the largest scientific representative.